ATTORNEY GENERAL

STATE OF MICHIGAN,

FOR THE YEAR 1863.

By Authority.

LANSING:

JOHN A. KERR & CO., PRINTERS TO THE STATE.

1863.

REPORT.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Lansing, Dec. 31st, 1863. }

TO HIS EXCELLENCY AUSTIN BLAIR,

Governor of Michigan:

SIR—In compliance with the requirements of statute, I have the honor to submit to you my Annual Report, for the year A. D. 1863.

February 20th, 1863, the Honorable the Senate of the State adopted a resolution, of which the following is a copy, to-wit:

"Resolved, (by the Senate,) That the Attorney General of this State, is hereby requested to make a report to this body what legal proceedings, if any, have been instituted against John McKinney, late State Treasurer, and against his sureties, in the bond executed by him and them to this State, as such Treasurer; also, if any judgment has been recovered thereon, and what measures have been taken to collect the same; also, if no portion of the moneys secured to be paid by said bond have been collected, to report the cause therefor; also, to report whether any sufficient cause exists to prevent the collection of said sum of money, by the use of due diligence, in enforcing the ordinary legal process and remedies in such case made and provided."

This resolution was officially transmitted to me, March 2d, 1863; and on the 6th day of that month, my answer to the same was duly communicated to the Honorable the Senate, a copy of which answer may be found in Senate Journal of 1863, page 546, and to which I respectfully refer your Excellency.

Subsequently the claim of the State, involved in the suit referred to in this resolution, and my answer to the same, (being the suit of the State against John McKinney and his sureties, then pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Ingham,) was, by a joint resolution of the Legislature, approved March 18, 1863, "referred and submitted to the Board of State Auditors for adjustment and final settlement;" said Board being thereby authorized and empowered to adjust and determine the liability of each of the sureties, and to settle and compound with him for the same, for such amount and on such terms as the said Board, taking into consideration the circumstances of the case, and the condition and responsibility of such sureties, respectively, shall deem for the best interests of the State, &c."

By reason of the adoption and approval of this resolution this suit has not been further prosecuted in court.

On the 23d day of February, 1863, the Honorable the Senate passed a resolution, which is in language as follows, to-wit:

"Resolved, That the Attorney General be and he is hereby requested to examine Senate bill No. 1, being 'A bill to enable the qualified electors of this State, in the military service, to vote at certain elections, and to amend sections 45 and 61, of chapter 6, of the Compiled Laws,' and report to the Senate, at his earliest convenience, his opinion in reference to the constitutionality of the provisions of said bill."

A copy of the foregoing resolution was transmitted to me by the Secretary of the Senate on the day of its adoption. My views upon the grave questions thus presented, were duly communicated to the honorable body calling for them, on the 25th day of the same month. For a copy of the report containing them, I respectfully refer your Excellency to Senate Journal of 1863, page 424. Though written in haste, when much pressed with various official duties, and in the absence of all legal authorities devoted to the investigation of those questions, and before they had been much, if at all, discussed in this State, still I am fully satisfied with the positions therein assumed; nor do I now know of any reason which could induce me to change or modify any of them.

Considering the magnitude of these questions, and the fact that they are still pending before the people, it perhaps may not be amiss to add that to provide for citizen soldiers to vote is but the discharge of a high and pressing duty, which, when done, goes not beyond the recognition of a most vital and invaluable right, guaranteed to them, in common with the electors of the State, by the Constitution; while to refuse, or to neglect to make such provision, is, moreover, to impose a penalty upon their loyalty, and to place an undue advantage in the hands of their and the Government's enemies, many of whom, no doubt, remain at home from the worst of motives. In a word, and in effect, it is justice denied and wrong promoted, patriotism shorn and treason strengthened. A view thus narrow and illiberal, which betrays so much of the citadel of free government into hostile hands, and closes its eyes upon the great fundamental truth, which is the corner stone of democratic rule, that to secure and not to destroy the unalienable rights of man, "governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed," is, in my judgment, a view replete with danger, saddening the heart of loyalty and delighting that of treason, and not supported by a construction of the Constitution, which, not entangling itself in imaginary forms and losing sight of the valuable substance of things, drinks in its large and generous spirit and meaning. The fiat which, unmindful of the great doctrines of freedom underlaying the Constitution, and constituting man's birthright, presumes to dash in the dust the sacred suffrages of tens of thousands of citizen soldiers, gone out with their lives in their hands, to rescue, vindicate and perpetuate that which we hold dearer than existence itself—our liberties and the union of the States—should not, therefore, be the bitter fruit of passiveness, having its foundation in doubts or timidity, nor of a reasoning more technical and contracted than broad and enlightened, intent upon and delighting in discovering ways and means to defeat and not to exalt the great and noble ends of republican government, broad based upon the peoples' will. The truly loyal citizens of the State should not, and will not, either view with cold indifference, or quietly brook the disfranchisement of so large and patriotic a class of electors, without being pointed, in justification, to the most solid, clear and conclusive reasoning; for the hand which dispenses such wide-spread and startling consequences, drying up so many fountains of civil authority, and sapping, more or less, the very foundations of a government by the people, should be able to vindicate itself by the most powerful and unanswerable considerations; and in this connection it may well and truly be remarked, that courts do not and will not hold statutes unconstitutional in cases merely substantially doubtful, but only when they violate the constitution clearly, palpably, and in such a manner as to leave no doubt or hesitation on the minds of the court. Surely, then, sophistry or truckling policy would be a most unsatisfactory recompense for thousands of citizen soldiers' suffrages, which, marked and dignified by their intelligence, probity and devotion to liberty and the country, as they would be, the genius of our institutions, in times like these, when great dangers menace upon every hand, cannot afford to lose.

It is true that in the States of Pennsylvania, Connecticut and New Hampshire, statutes of such a character have been held unconstitutional, while in the States of Iowa and Wisconsin they have been sustained, and this, too, by their highest judicial tribunals. Looking into the Constitutions of these States, it will be observed, however, that those of the three States first named widely differ in their phraseology, upon the subject of voting, from our own, while those of the two States last named are substantially the same—intending, like our own, to simply establish the time of holding elections and the qualifications of electors, leaving all else to be regulated by legislation. Hence, our references to the Constitution of this State have ever been not to learn the place or method of voting, but the time of holding elections and the qualifications of electors.

May we not then most confidently hope that speedy and ample provision will be made, securing to these noble men, covered with immortal glory, the exercise of this inalienable right?

In the matter of the application of Hon. John M. Gregory, Superintendent of Public Instruction, to the Supreme Court, for the writ of mandamus to issue and be directed to Hon. Emil Anneke, Auditor General, the facts, question raised, and decision made, are substantially as follows, to wit:

An act of Congress, approved September 28, 1850, granted to this State certain lands known as swamp lands. The object of this act was the reclamation of those lands, making them fit for cultivation. Act No. 106, of the laws of 1857, of this State, vests the supervision and sale of these lands in the Commissioner of the State Land Office, fixes the minimum price at $5 per acre, and provides the method of sale, terms of payment, &c., for the execution and delivery of patents. Section 9 of this act of 1857, is in language as follows, to-wit:

"Sec. 9. Of the proceeds of the sales of said swamp lands, paid or to be paid into the State Treasury, twenty-five per centum shall be reserved and set apart as a drainage fund, for the purpose of aiding the counties in which the lands sold may lie, the interest of which, at the rate of seven per cent., shall be, in pursuance of law, appropriated to drain such of the said lands as are situate in the county, and which, in the opinion of the supervisors, are capable of drainage, and can be profitably drained, and shall not have been sold under the provisions of this act; and the balance of such proceeds, after deducting the necessary and lawful expenses of such sales, shall be appropriated to, and constitute a part of the Primary School Fund. Said balance shall be considered as loaned to the State at an interest of seven per cent. per annum, which interest shall be paid to the Primary School Fund annually, and the principal thereof is hereby appropriated to the payment of the outstanding indebtedness of the State, secured by its bonds or stocks, in the order in which they shall fall due."

It was claimed by Hon. John M. Gregory, that the appropriation of seventy-five per centum of the proceeds of the sales of the swamp lands, after deducting the expenses of sales, as made by said section 9, to the Primary School Fund, was a grant, perpetual and irrevocable, made so by article 13, section 2, of the Constitution of this State, and applied to all of those lands, without reference to the date of sales; and, therefore, that all acts and parts of acts of the Legislature, diverting the whole or any part of the seventy-five per centum of those moneys, after deducting the expenses of sales, were unconstitutional and void. Accordingly the Superintendent requested Hon. Emil Anneke to include in his notice of the amount of the income of the Primary School Fund, the annual interest, at seven per cent., on seventy-five per cent. of the proceeds of the sales of all swamp lands received into the Treasury, and of all payments made in lands on swamp land road contracts, after deducting the expenses of sales. The Auditor General, not understanding the act of 1857 to assume the character and force of a grant, perpetual and irrevocable, of the great body of the swamp lands, but simply of the proceeds of the sales of such as were sold before the amendment or suspension of said section 9, less the expenses of sales, did not comply with the request of the Superintendent mentioned.

Hence the Superintendent applied to the Supreme Court, at its last July term, to issue the writ of mandamus, directed to the Hon. Emil Anneke, Auditor General, commanding him to include in his notice to the Superintendent, as a part of the income of the Primary School Fund, the annual interest, at seven per centum, on seventy-five per cent. of the proceeds of all sales made of the swamp lands and of all payments made in swamp lands on road contracts, after deducting the expenses of sales, treating Act No. 31, of the laws of 1858, of this State, and all other Acts, so far as they contravened the provisions of said section 9, as unconstitutional and void. This application for the writ of mandamus was submitted to the Court at its July term, upon briefs, myself appearing as counsel for the Auditor General. The application was then taken under advisement by the Court, and, at its last October term, was overruled and the writ denied; the Court substantially holding, that the appropriation in question was not perpetual and irrevocable as to the proceeds of the sales of all swamp lands belonging to the State, but only applied to such as were sold before said section 9 was amended by said Act No. 31, of the laws of 1858—the appropriation being not the lands, but simply the proceeds of the sales of those disposed of, less the expenses of sales, to such a time as the Legislature might choose to enlarge or diminish the ratio, or to wholly arrest it; a power which the Legislature had exercised.

The question presented in this proceeding, also, had frequently, during the last few years, more or less embarrassed legislation, and was one of more than ordinary interest to the people of the State. Its judicial settlement, for the sake of settlement, may, therefore, if viewed in no other light, be regarded as in no small degree fortunate to all concerned.

At the last October term of the Supreme Court, I appeared, on behalf of the People, and argued the case of George C. Evans, plaintiff in error, vs. the People, defendants in error. The plaintiff in error had been convicted of manslaughter in the Circuit Court for the county of Kent, at its last June term, and the case was pending in the Supreme Court, by his bill of exceptions. At the same term the Court rendered their decision in the case, overruling the exceptions.

At the same term of the Supreme Court, having become satisfied that the River Raisin and Lake Erie Railroad Company was doing an unlawful banking business, to wit: issuing bank notes as a circulating medium without any lawful authority, at the city of Monroe, in this State, I filed against that Company an information in the nature of a quo warranto, in the Supreme Court. The writ has been duly issued, served and returned, but the company has not yet pleaded to the information, the time therefor having been extended, by the order of one of the Supreme Court Judges, till the 20th proximo.

Also, at the same term, an application was made to the Supreme Court by George W. Blair, a member of the 5th Michigan Battery of Light Artillery, for the writ of mandamus to issue and be directed to William Hammond, Quartermaster General of the State, directing the latter to pay him, Blair, the sum of $50 as a State bounty—myself appearing and arguing the motion on the part of the Quartermaster General. The application was based upon the following facts: Blair was a substitute for a man who had been drafted in this State into the military service of the United States, in the month of February last, for the period of nine months; but May 13th, 1863, volunteered and was mustered, as a private soldier, into such service for the period of three years, or during the war, and had ever since served as such soldier in said battery. Thereupon, he claimed to be entitled to the State bounty of $50, contemplated by act No. 51, of the laws of 1863, of this State, and ordered to be paid to volunteers by your Excellency. The application was sustained by the Court, and the writ of mandamus directed to issue accordingly.

On the 3d day of October last, a suit was commenced in the Circuit Court for the county of Tuscola in chancery, by Martin Watrous and David G. Slafter, complainants, vs. Emil Anneke, Auditor General, and Alson Greenfield, county treasurer of that county, defendants. The object of the suit is to prevent the sale of certain lands delinquent for certain taxes assessed thereon, to defray the expenses of ditching; the taxes being claimed, for various reasons, to be illegal and void. I have entered the appearance of the Auditor General and the County Treasurer in the suit, and a copy of the bill has been served, but the defendants' answer has not yet been put in.

The three chancery suits commenced against the Auditor General in 1861, one of them in the county of Wayne, and two in Bay county, for a like purpose, and referred to in the last annual report of my immediate predecessor, are still pending. They will be brought on to a final hearing early next year.

The case of the People vs. The Phoenix Bank, is still pending in the Court of Appeals of the State of New York, it not having been reached, owing to the crowded state of the docket of that Court. It is in the charge of Hon. J. M. Howard, as attorney for the People, and I have reason to believe it will be brought on for argument at an early day in 1864.

The case of the mortgage foreclosure of the State vs. Dewey, Hazelton, et. al., is still pending in the Circuit Court for the county of Genesee, in Chancery, and will be brought on to a final hearing at an early period next year.

The case of the Michigan Southern & Northern Indiana Railroad Company vs. The State, commenced in 1862, in the Circuit Court for the county of Wayne, in chancery, and particularly mentioned in the last annual report of Attorney General Upson, is still pending. It was to have been brought on to a final hearing early in this month, but the severe sickness of one of the complainant's solicitors prevented. It is now set down for such hearing on the 14th day of next month.

In the case of Edmund H. Hazelton, et al., for the benefit of the State, vs. the Flint and Pere Marquette Railway Company, an execution has been issued and returned, nulla bona, during the year. Judgment was rendered in this case in the Wayne Circuit Court, September 22, 1862, in favor of the plaintiffs, and against the defendant, for the sum of $19,304 07 damages. The Company have recently repeatedly offered to pay the judgment in the bonds of the Company, to be received at their nominal value, but I have not felt authorized to cancel the judgment upon such payment. The business of the company is rapidly increasing, and I think the whole amount will be paid, in current funds, at no very distant day. Still it will not fail to receive from me all reasonable attention, with a view to its earliest possible collection.

Simply to become acquainted with the suits in which the State is interested, and which were pending on the 1st day of January last, is a work of no small proportions. It would, at least, require the hard and patient labor of several weeks, if not almost or quite months. I have not, for any reason, failed to do in that regard, as well as to bring them to a final issue, all that in my power lay. Other duties, as was to have been expected, have pressed upon and necessarily received a very large proportion of my time, so that, in truth, almost my whole attention, during the year, has been devoted to the discharge of the duties of my office. It were, in truth, hardly possible to have done more.

During the year eighteen mutual insurance companies have been organized in this State. The charters of these companies have all been examined and certified by me, as required by the provisions of Act No. 262, of the laws of 1859, of this State. Several others have been examined, and certificates withheld, which have not yet been returned with the objections removed. But very few have been certified as first presented, and several not till submitted the third time. The property interest to be involved in these companies was destined to soon reach many millions of dollars. I could not, therefore, pass them lightly. I have, consequently, had to devote several weeks of hard labor to the examination of, and suggestions of improvements in, the proposed charters referred to, each being considerably voluminous. Having prepared circulars embracing the information needed by those desirous of organizing such companies, and a precedent for a charter, the discharge of the duties imposed by the Act named will thereby, I trust, be very greatly facilitated in each instance arising hereafter.

The official correspondence of the office, during the year, has required much time and attention. Many of the questions presented grew out of the Constitution and Statutes of the State, had not been judicially settled, affected highly important interests, some involving titles to office and others rights of property, and, therefore, demanded and have received careful and extended examinations. All questions, coming from whatever source, as each more or less concerned the public, have been answered, excepting only in two or three instances, in which, as it seemed to me, I could not consistently comply.

I transmit herewith abstracts of all the annual reports received from Prosecuting Attorneys.

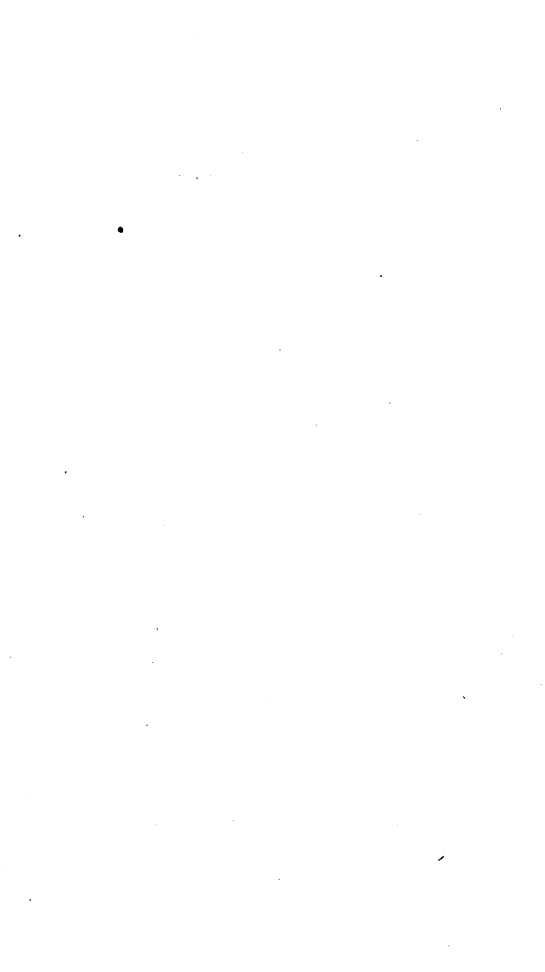

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ALBERT WILLIAMS,

Attorney General.
